

ENGLISH PEWTER FLAGON, CIRCA 1780 #PTR26

SKU: N/A

This is a charming English pewter flagon that holds 1 quart. It was hand hammered by Townsend in London c. 1730 - 1750. Pewter of this kind was used for eating, drinking, and celebrating on a daily basis until the 19th century. This flagon has a double dome lid and scroll thumb piece for comfort while carrying. There is a beautiful fish tail handle terminal and the straight sided body has a raised band at the handle junction.

#ptr26

7 x 5 x 7" high

