

PEWTER PLATTER

SKU: N/A

This is a lovely example of 18th c wriggle work in the style of W Hutchins of Tavistock c 1710. The charger is 17.25 in diameter. The design is a stylized flower and vine with a bird in the center. Wriggle work is made by using a screwdriver like tool making decorative markings to create a design on the pewter.

17 1/8

BF-PTR-1

